SHARES AND SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 2.1 Every member is entitled, without charge, to one certificate representing the share or shares of each class held by him or her, provided that:
- (a) in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint registered holders or to his or her duly authorized agent shall be sufficient delivery to all;
 - (b) the Company shall not be bound to issue certificates representing redeemable shares, if such shares are to be redeemed within one month of the date on which they were allotted.

Any share certificate may be sent through the mail by registered prepaid mail to the member entitled thereto, and neither the Company nor any transfer agent shall be liable for any loss occasioned to the member owing to any such share certificate so sent being lost in the mail or stolen.

- 2.2 If a share certificate

- (b) is lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and upon such indemnity, if any, as the Directors deem adequate being given, a new share certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued to the person entitled to such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate;
- (c) represents more than one share and the registered owner thereof surrenders it to the Company with a written request that the Company issue in his or her name two or more certificates each representing a specified number of shares and in the aggregate representing the same number of shares as the certificate so surrendered, the company shall cancel the certificate so surrendered and issue in lieu thereof certificates in accordance with such request.

Such sum, not exceeding Five Dollars, as the Directors may from time to time fix, shall be paid to the Company for each certificate to be issued under this Article.

2.3 Every share certificate shall be signed manually by at least one Officer or Director of the Company, or by or on behalf of a registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the Company, and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced and, in such event, a certificate so signed is as valid as if signed manually, notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he or she is stated on such certificate to hold at the date of the issue of a share certificate.

2.4 Every share certificate shall be endorsed with the following legend:

The shares represented by this certificate and the benefits accruing to the holder are subject to the provisions of a Land Use Contract made the 8th day of June, 1976 and a Trust Indenture annexed thereto as amended by Agreement dated as of the 1st day of January, 1999 and as may be further amended from time to time.

2.5 Except as required by law, statute or these Articles, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by law, statute or these Articles provided or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in its registered holder.

ISSUE OF SHARES

3.1 Subject to Article 3.2 and to any direction to the contrary contained in a resolution passed at a general meeting authorizing any increase or alteration of capital, the shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may, subject to the rights of the holders of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, issue, allot, sell or otherwise dispose of, and/or grant options on or otherwise deal in, shares authorized but not issued at such times, to such persons (including Directors), in such manner, upon such terms and conditions, and at such price or for such consideration, as the Directors, in their absolute discretion, may determine.

3.2 If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company and the Directors are required by the Business Corporations Act before allotting any shares to offer them pro rata to the members, the Directors shall, before allotting any shares, comply with the applicable provisions of the Business Corporations Act.

3.3 Subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, the Company, or the Directors on behalf of the Company, may pay a commission or allow a discount to any person in consideration of his or her subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any such shares, provided that, if the Company is not a specially limited company, the rate of the commission and discount shall not in the aggregate exceed 25 per centum of the amount of the subscription price of such shares.

3.4 No share may be issued until it is fully paid and the Company shall have received the full consideration therefor in cash, property or past services actually performed for the Company. The value of property or services for the purpose of this Article shall be the value determined by the Directors by resolution to be, in all circumstances of the transaction, the fair market value thereof.

SHARE REGISTERS

4.1 The Company shall keep or cause to be kept within British Columbia a register of members, a register of transfers and a register of allotments, all as required by the Business Corporations Act, and may combine one or more of such registers. If the Company's capital shall consist of more than one class of shares, a separate register of members, register of transfers and register of allotments may be kept in respect of each class of shares. The Directors on behalf of the Company may appoint a trust company to keep the register of members, register of transfers and register of allotments or, if there is more than one class of shares, the Directors may appoint a trust company, which need not be the same trust company, to keep the register of members, the register of transfers and the register of allotments for each class of share. The Directors on behalf of the Company may also appoint one or more trust companies, including the trust company which keeps the said registers of its shares or of a class thereof, as the case may be, or another trust company or companies, as registrar for its shares or such class thereof, as the case may be. The Directors may terminate the appointment of any such trust company at any time and may appoint another trust company in its place.

4.2 Unless prohibited by the Business Corporations Act, the Company may keep or cause to be kept one or more branch registers of members at such place or places as the Directors may from time to time determine.

4.3 The Company shall not at any time close its register of members.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

5.1 Subject to the provisions of the Memorandum and of these Articles that may be applicable, any member may transfer any of his or her shares by instrument in writing executed by or on behalf of such member and delivered to the Company or its transfer agent. The instrument of transfer of any share of the Company shall be in the form, if any, on the back of the Company's share certificates or in such form as the Directors may from time to time approve. Except to the extent that the Business Corporations Act may otherwise provide, the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members or a branch register of members in respect thereof.

5.2 The signature of the registered owner of any shares, or of his or her duly authorized attorney, upon an authorized instrument of transfer shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its Directors, Officers and agents to register in the name of the transferee as named in the instrument of transfer, the number of shares specified thereon or, if no number is specified, all the shares of the registered owner represented by share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer. If no transferee is named in the instrument of transfer, the instrument of transfer shall constitute a complete and sufficient authority to the Company, its Directors, Officers and agent to register, in the name of the person on whose behalf any certificate for the shares to be transferred is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered, the number of shares specified in the instrument of transfer or, if no number is specified, all the shares represented by all share certificates deposited with the instrument of transfer.

5.3 Neither the Company nor any Director, Officer, or agent thereof shall be bound to enquire into the title of the person named in the form of transfer as transferee or, if no person is named therein as transferee, of the person on whose behalf the certificate is deposited with the Company for the purpose of having the transfer registered, or be liable to any claim by such registered owner or by any intermediate owner or holder of the certificate or of any of the shares represented thereby or any interest therein for registering the transfer and the transfer, when registered, shall confer upon the person in whose name the shares have been registered a valid title to such shares.

5.4 Every instrument of transfer shall be executed by the transferor and left at the registered office of the Company or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar for registration together with the share certificate for the shares to be transferred and such other evidence, if any, as the Directors or the transfer agent or registrar may require to prove the title of the transferor or his or her right to transfer the shares and the right of the transferee to have the transfer registered. All instruments of transfer where the transfer is registered shall be retained by the Company or its transfer agent or registrar and any instrument of transfer, where the transfer is not registered, shall be returned to the person depositing the same together with the shares certificate which accompanied the same when tendered for registration.

5.5 There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of any transfer such sum, if any, as the Directors may from time to time determine.

5.6 In the case of the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint registered holder, and the legal personal representative of the deceased where he or she was the sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his or her interest in the shares. Before recognizing any legal personal representative the Directors may require him or her to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration in British Columbia.

5.7 Upon the death or bankruptcy of a member, his or her personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy, although not a member, shall have the same rights, privileges and obligations that attach to the shares formerly held by the deceased or bankrupt member if the documents required by the Business Corporations Act shall have been deposited at the Company's registered office.

5.8 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such documents and evidence being produced to the Company as the Business Corporations Act requires, or who becomes entitled to a share as a result of an order of a Court of competent jurisdiction or a statute, has the right either to be registered as a member in his or her representative capacity in respect of such share or, if he or she is a personal representative, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, but the Directors shall, as regards a transfer by a personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy, have the same right, if any, to decline or suspend registration of a transferee as they would have in the case of a transfer of a share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

6.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution filed with the Registrar amend its Memorandum to increase the authorized capital of the Company by:

- (a) creating shares with par value or shares without par value, or both;
- (b) increasing the number of shares with par value or shares without par value, or both, or
- (c) increasing the par value of a class of shares with par value, if no shares of that class are issued.

6.2 The Company may by special resolution alter its Memorandum to subdivide, consolidate, change from shares with par value to shares without par value, or from shares without par value to shares with par value, or change the designation of, all or any of its shares but only to such extent, in such manner and with such consents of members holding a class of shares which is the subject of or affected by such alteration, as the Business Corporations Act provides.

6.3 The Company may alter its Memorandum or these Articles:

- (a) by special resolution, to create, define and attach special rights or restrictions to any shares, and
- (b) by special resolution and by otherwise complying with any applicable provision of its Memorandum or these Articles, to vary or abrogate any special rights and restrictions attached to any shares, and in each case by filing a certified copy of such resolution with the Registrar but no right or special right attached to any issued shares shall be prejudiced or interfered with unless all members holding shares of each class whose right or special right is so prejudiced or interfered with consent thereto in writing, or unless a resolution consenting thereto is passed at a separate class meeting of the holders of the shares of each such class by a majority of three-fourths (or such greater majority as may be specified by the special rights attached to the class of shares) of the issued shares of such class.

6.4 Notwithstanding such consent in writing or such resolution, no such alteration shall be valid as to any part of the issued shares of any class unless the holders of the rest of the issued shares of such class either all consent thereto in writing or consent thereto by a resolution passed by the votes of members holding three-fourths of the rest of such shares.

6.5 If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, no resolution to create, vary or abrogate any special right of conversion attaching to any class of shares shall be submitted to any meeting of members unless, if so required by the Business Corporations Act, the British Columbia Securities Commission shall have consented to the resolution.

6.6 Unless these Articles otherwise provide, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply, with the necessary changes and so far as they are applicable, to a class meeting of members holding a particular class of shares, but the quorum at a class meeting shall be one person holding or representing by proxy one-third of the shares affected.

PURCHASE AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

7.1 Subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to any class of shares, the Company may, by a resolution of the Directors and in compliance with the Business Corporations Act, purchase any of its shares at the price and upon the terms specified in such resolution or redeem any class of its shares in accordance with the special rights and restrictions attaching thereto. No such purchase or redemption shall be made if the Company is insolvent at the time of the proposed purchase or redemption or if the proposed purchase or redemption would render the company insolvent. Unless the shares are to be purchased through a stock exchange or the Company is purchasing the shares from dissenting members pursuant to the requirements of the Business Corporations Act, the Company shall make its offer to purchase pro rata to every member who holds shares of the class or kind, as the case may be, to be purchased.

7.2 If the Company proposes at its option to redeem some but not all of the shares of any class, the Directors may, subject to the special rights and restrictions attached to such class of shares, decide the manner in which the shares to be redeemed shall be selected.

7.3 Subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, any shares purchased or redeemed by the Company may be sold or issued by it, but, while such shares are held by the Company, it shall not exercise any vote in respect of these shares and no dividend shall be paid thereon.

BORROWING POWERS

8.1 The Directors may from time to time on behalf of the Company:

- (a) borrow money in such manner and amount, on such security, from such sources and upon such terms and conditions as they think fit;
- (b) issue bonds, debentures, and other debt obligations either outright or as security for any liability or obligation of the Company or any other person, and
- (c) mortgage, charge (whether by way of specific or floating charge) or give other security on the undertaking, or on the whole or any part of the property and assets, of the Company, both present and future.

8.2 Any bonds, debentures or other debt obligations of the Company may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawing, allotment of or conversion into or exchange for shares or other securities, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors or otherwise and may by their terms be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom they were issued or any subsequent holder thereof, all as the Directors may determine.

8.3 The Company shall keep or cause to be kept within the Province of British Columbia in accordance with the Business Corporations Act a register of its debentures and a register of debentureholders, which registers may be combined, and, subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, may keep or cause to be kept one or more branch registers of its debentureholders at such place or places as the Directors may from time to time determine, and the Directors may by resolution, regulation or otherwise make such provisions as they think fit respecting the keeping of such branch registers.

8.4 Every bond, debenture or other debt obligation of the Company shall be signed manually by at least one Director or Officer of the Company or by or on behalf of a trustee, registrar, branch registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent for the bond, debenture or other debt obligation appointed by the Company or under any instrument under which the bond, debenture or other debt obligation is issued and any additional signatures may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and, in such event, a bond, debenture or other debt obligation so signed is as valid as if signed manually notwithstanding that any person whose signature is so printed or mechanically reproduced shall have ceased to hold the office that he or she is stated on such bond, debenture or other debt obligation to hold at the date of the issue thereof.

8.5 The Company shall keep or cause to be kept a register of its indebtedness to every Director or Officer of the Company or an associate of any of them in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act.

GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1 Subject to any extensions of time permitted pursuant to the Business Corporations Act, the first annual general meeting of the Company shall be held within fifteen months from the date of amalgamation and thereafter an annual general meeting shall be held once in every calendar year at such time (not being more than thirteen months after the holding of the last preceding annual general meeting) and place as may be determined by the Directors.

9.2 If the Company is, or becomes, a company which is not a reporting company and all the members entitled to attend and vote at an annual general meeting consent in writing to all the business which is required or desired to be transacted at the meeting, the meeting need not be held.

9.3 All general meetings other than annual general meetings are herein referred to as and may be called extraordinary general meetings.

9.4 The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting. An extraordinary general meeting, if requisitioned in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, shall be convened by the Directors or, if not convened by the Directors, may be convened by the requisitionists as provided by the Business Corporations Act.

9.5 If the Company is or becomes a reporting company, advance notice of any general meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall be published in the manner required by the Business Corporations Act.

9.6 A notice convening a general meeting specifying the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given as provided in the Business Corporations Act and in the manner hereinafter in these Articles mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by ordinary resolution, whether previous notice thereof has been given or not, to such persons as are entitled by law or under these Articles to receive such notice from the Company. Accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

9.7 All the members of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may, by unanimous consent in writing given before, during or after the meeting, or if they are present at the meeting by a unanimous vote, waive or reduce the period of notice of such meeting and an entry in the minute book of such waiver or reduction shall be sufficient evidence of the due convening of the meeting.

9.8 Except as otherwise provided by the Business Corporations Act, where any special business at a general meeting includes considering, approving, ratifying, adopting or authorizing any document or the execution thereof or the giving of effect thereto, the notice convening the meeting shall, with respect to such document, be sufficient if it states that a copy of the document or proposed document is or will be available for inspection by members at the registered office or records office of the Company or at such other place in British Columbia designated in the notice during usual business hours up to the date of such general meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 All business shall be deemed special business which is transacted at:
(a) an extraordinary general meeting other than the conduct of, and voting at, such meeting; and

- (b) an annual general meeting, with the exception of the conduct of, and voting at, such meeting, the consideration of the financial statements and of the respective reports of the Directors and Auditors, fixing or changing the number of Directors, approval of a motion to elect two or more Directors by a single resolution, the election of Directors, the appointment of the Auditor, the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditor, any business which is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors and such other business as by these Articles or the Business Corporations Act may be transacted at a general meeting without prior notice thereof being given to the members.

10.2 No business, other than election of the chairman or the adjournment of the meeting, shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members, entitled to attend and vote, is present at the commencement of the meeting, but the quorum need not be present throughout the meeting.

10.3 Save as herein otherwise provided, a quorum shall be two persons present and being, or representing by proxy, members holding not less than one-twentieth of the shares which may be voted at the meeting. If there is only one member the quorum is one person present and being, or representing by proxy, such member. The Directors, the Secretary or, in his or her absence, an Assistant Secretary, and the Solicitor of the Company shall be entitled to attend any general meeting but no such person shall be counted in the quorum or be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless he or she shall be a member or proxyholder entitled to vote thereat.

10.4 If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the person or persons present and being, or representing by proxy, a member or members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, shall be a quorum.

10.5 The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence the President of the Company or in his or her absence a Vice-President of the Company, if any, shall be entitled to preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company.

10.6 If at any general meeting neither the Chairman of the Board nor President nor a Vice-President is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, the Directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair or shall fail to so choose or if no Director be present, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

10.7 The Chairman may and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice, but not "advance notice", of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

10.8 No motion proposed at a general meeting need be seconded and the chairman may propose or second a motion.

10.9 Subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, at any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is directed by the chairman or demanded by at least one member entitled to vote who is present in person or by proxy. The chairman shall declare to the meeting the decision on every question in accordance with the result of the show of hands or the poll, and such decision shall be entered in the book of proceedings of the Company. A declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

10.10 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

10.11 No poll may be demanded on the election of a chairman. A poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken as soon as, in the opinion of the chairman, is reasonably convenient, but in no event later than seven days after the meeting, and at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of and passed at the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. In any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the decision of the chairman made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

10.12 Every ballot cast upon a poll and every proxy appointing a proxyholder who casts a ballot upon a poll shall be retained by the Secretary for such period and be subject to such inspection as the Business Corporations Act may provide.

10.13 On a poll a person entitled to cast more than one vote need not, if he or she votes, use all his or her votes or cast all the votes he or she uses in the same way.

10.14 Unless the Business Corporations Act, the Memorandum or these Articles otherwise provide, any action to be taken by a resolution of the members may be taken by an ordinary resolution.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

11.1 Subject to any special voting rights or restrictions attached to any class of shares and the restrictions on joint registered holders of shares, on a show of hands every member who is present in person and entitled to vote thereat shall have one vote and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he or she is the registered holder and may exercise such vote either in person or by proxyholder.

11.2 Any person who is not registered as a member but is entitled to vote at any general meeting in respect of a share, may vote the share in the same manner as if he or she were a member but, unless the Directors have previously admitted his or her right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share, he or she shall satisfy the Directors of his or her right to vote the share before the time for holding the meeting, or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he or she proposes to vote.

11.3 Any corporation (not being a subsidiary of the Company) which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any general meeting or class meeting. The person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise in respect of and at such meeting the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he or she represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company personally present, including, without limitation, the right, unless restricted by such resolution, to appoint a proxyholder to represent such corporation, and shall be counted for the purpose of forming a quorum if present at the meeting. Evidence of the appointment of any such representative may be sent to the Company by written instrument, telegram, telex, facsimile or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a corporation being a member may appoint a proxyholder.

11.4 In the case of joint registered holders of a share the vote of the senior who exercises a vote, whether in person or by proxyholder, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint registered holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members. Several legal personal representatives of a deceased member whose shares are registered in his or her sole name shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed joint registered holders.

11.5 A member of unsound mind entitled to attend and vote, in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his or her committee, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, curator bonis, or other person may appoint a proxyholder.

11.6 A member holding more than one share in respect of which he or she is entitled to vote shall be entitled to appoint one or more (but not more than five) proxyholders to attend, act and vote for him or her on the same occasion. If such a member should appoint more than one proxyholder for the same occasion he or she shall specify the number of shares each proxyholder shall be entitled to vote. A member may also appoint one or more alternate proxyholders to act in the place and stead of an absent proxyholder.

11.7 A form of proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his or her attorney duly authorized in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under the seal of the corporation or under the hand of a duly authorized officer or attorney. A proxyholder need not be a member of the Company.

11.8 A form of proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time for holding the meeting in respect of which the person named in the instrument is appointed. In addition to any other method of depositing proxies provided for in these Articles, the Directors may from time to time by resolution make regulations relating to the depositing of proxies at any place or places and fixing the time or times for depositing the proxies not exceeding 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) preceding the meeting or adjourned meeting specified in the notice calling a meeting of members and providing for particulars of such proxies to be sent to the Company or any agent of the Company in writing or by letter, telegram, telex, facsimile or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages so as to arrive before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at the office of the Company or of any agent of the Company appointed for the purpose of receiving such particulars and providing that proxies so deposited may be acted upon as though the proxies themselves were deposited as required by this Part and votes given in accordance with such regulations shall be valid and shall be counted.

11.9 Unless the Business Corporations Act or any other statute or law which is applicable to the Company or to any class of its shares requires any other form of proxy, a proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in the form following, but may also be in such other form as the Directors or the chairman of the meeting shall approve:

(Name of Company)

The undersigned, being a member of the above named Company, hereby appoints or failing him or her as proxyholder for the undersigned to attend, act and vote for and on behalf of the undersigned at the general meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____ 19____ and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(Signature of Member)

11.10 A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy is valid notwithstanding the previous death or incapacity of the member giving the proxy or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the form of proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notification in writing of such death, incapacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the registered office of the Company or by the chairman of the meeting or adjourned meeting for which the proxy was given before the vote is taken.

11.11 Every proxy may be revoked by an instrument in writing:

- (a) executed by the member giving the same or by his or her attorney authorized in writing or, where the member is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the corporation; and
- (b) delivered either at the registered office of the Company at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the meeting or any adjournment thereof at which the proxy is to be used, or to the chairman of the meeting on the day of the meeting or any adjournment thereof before any vote in respect of which the proxy is to be used shall have been taken, or in any other manner provided by law.

PART 12 DIRECTORS

12.1 The first Directors are as set out in the Amalgamation Agreement. The Directors to succeed the first Directors shall be elected by the members entitled to vote on the election of Directors in the manner set forth in Article 13.1 and the number of Directors shall be the same as the number of Directors so elected. The number of Directors, may be fixed or changed from time to time by ordinary resolution of all classes of Non-Voting Common shares of the Company but notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles the number of Directors shall never be less than one or, if the Company is or becomes a reporting company, less than three.

12.2 The remuneration of the Directors as such may from time to time be determined by the Directors or, if the Directors shall so decide, by the members. Such remuneration may be in addition to any salary or other remuneration paid to any officer or employee of the Company as such who is also a Director. The Directors shall be repaid such reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses as they incur in and about the business of the Company and if any Director shall perform any professional or other services for the Company that in the opinion of the Directors are outside the ordinary duties of a Director or shall otherwise be specially occupied in or about the Company's business, he or she may be paid a remuneration to be fixed by the Board or, at the option of such Director, by the Company in general meeting, and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration that he or she may be entitled to receive. The Directors on behalf of the Company, unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any Director who has held any salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his or her spouse or dependants and may make contributions to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.

12.3 A Director shall:

- (a) hold a share in the capital of the company, or
- (b) hold an enforceable Agreement for Sale for the purchase of a share in the company, or
- (c) be a spouse, common-law spouse, domestic partner, adult child or parent of the holder of a share in the company as a qualification for his or her office, and shall be qualified as required by the Business Corporations Act to become or act as a Director. [am. November 20, 2001].

12.4 A Director shall not serve or continue to serve as a Director if:

- (a) at the date of the election for Director money is owing to the Company with respect to such qualifying share; or
- (b) subsequent to the date of election for Director there are arrears of payments of any amounts due to the Company with respect to such qualifying share which have continued for a period of sixty (60) days from the billing date.

[am. April 4, 2006].

PART 13

ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

13.1 At each annual general meeting of the Company all the Directors shall retire and the members entitled to vote thereat shall elect a Board of Directors consisting of:

- (a) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-1" Non-Voting Common share of the Company, and
- (b) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-2" Non-Voting Common share of the Company, and
- (c) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-3" Non-Voting Common share of the Company, and
- (d) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-4" Non-Voting Common share of the Company, and
- (e) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-5" Non-Voting Common share of the Company, and
- (f) two (2) persons elected by, from and among the holders of the Class "B-6" Non-Voting Common share of the Company.

If the Company is, or becomes, a company that is not a reporting company and the business to be transacted at any annual general meeting is consented to in writing by all the members who are entitled to attend and vote thereat such annual general meeting shall be deemed for the purpose of this Part to have been held on such written consent becoming effective.

13.2 A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

13.3 Where the Company fails to hold an annual general meeting in accordance with the Business Corporations Act, the Directors then in office shall be deemed to have been elected or appointed as Directors on the last day on which the annual general meeting could have been held pursuant to these Articles and they may hold office until other Directors are appointed or elected or until the day on which the next annual general meeting is held.

13.4 If at any general meeting at which there should be an election of Directors the places of any of the retiring Directors are not filled by such election, such of the retiring Directors who are not re-elected who shall be holders of a Non-Voting Common share of the same class as that for which the required number of Directors has not been elected as may be requested by the newly elected Directors shall, if willing to do so, continue in office to complete the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles until further new Directors are elected at a general meeting convened for the purpose. If any such election or continuance of Directors does not result in the election or continuance of the number of Directors for the time being fixed pursuant to these Articles, such number shall be fixed at the number of Directors actually elected or continued in office.

13.5 Any casual vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the remaining Directors or Director, provided that the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall be a holder of a Non-Voting Common share of the same class as that held by the person whose absence has created the casual vacancy.

13.6 Any Director may by instrument in writing delivered to the Company appoint any person to be his or her alternate to act in his or her place at meetings of the Directors at which he or she is not present unless the Directors shall have reasonably disapproved the appointment of such person as an alternate Director and shall have given notice to that effect to the Director appointing the Alternate Director within a reasonable time after delivery of such instrument to the Company. Every such alternate shall be entitled to notice of meeting of the Directors and to attend and vote as a Director at a meeting at which the person appointing him or her is not personally present and, if he or she is a Director, to have a separate vote on behalf of the Director he or she is representing in addition to his or her own vote. A Director may at any time by instrument, telegram, telex, facsimile or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages delivered to the Company revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him or her. The remuneration payable to such an alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration of the Director appointing him or her.

13.7 The office of Director shall be vacated if the Director:

- (a) ceases to be a holder of a Non-Voting Common share of the Company of the class that nominated the Director for such office; or
- (b) resigns such office by notice in writing delivered to the registered office of the Company; or
- (c) is convicted of an indictable offence and the other Directors shall have resolved to remove him or her; or
- (d) ceases to be qualified to act as a Director pursuant to the Business Corporations Act.

13.8 The Company may by special resolution of the holders of Non-Voting Common shares of the Company of the class that nominated the Director for such office remove any Director before the expiration of his or her period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution of the holders of Non-Voting Common shares of the Company of the class that nominated the Director for such office appoint another person in his or her stead.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

14.1 The Directors shall manage, or supervise the management of, the affairs and business of the Company and shall have the authority to exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, but the Business Corporations Act or by the Memorandum or these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting.

14.2 The Directors may from time to time, by power of attorney or other instrument under the seal, appoint any person to be the attorney of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles and excepting the powers of the Directors relating to the constitution of the Board and of any of its committees and the appointment or removal of officers and the power to declare dividends) and for such period, with such remuneration and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and any such appointment may be made in favour of any of the employees of any corporation, or of any of the members, directors, nominees or managers of any of any corporation, firm or joint venture and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney as the Directors think fit. Any such attorney may be authorized by the Directors to subdelegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in him or her.

DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST OF DIRECTORS

15.1 A director who is, in any way, directly or indirectly interested in an existing or proposed contract or transaction with the Company or who holds any office or possesses any property whereby, directly or indirectly, a duty or interest might be created to conflict with his or her duty or interest as a Director shall declare the nature and extent of his or her interest in such contract or transaction or of the conflict or potential conflict with his or her duty and interest as a Director, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act.

15.2 A Director shall not vote in respect of any contract or transaction with the Company in which he or she is interested and if he or she shall do so his or her vote shall not be counted, but he or she shall be counted in the quorum present at the meeting at which such vote is taken. Subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, the foregoing prohibitions shall not apply to:

- (a) any such contract or transaction relating to a loan to the Company which a Director or a specified corporation or a specified firm in which he or she has an interest has guaranteed or joined in guaranteeing the repayment of the loan or any part of the loan;
- (b) any contract or transaction made or to be made with, or for the benefit of, a holding corporation or a subsidiary corporation of which a Director is a director;
- (c) any contract by a Director to subscribe for or underwrite shares or debentures to be issued by the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, or any contract, arrangement or transaction in which a Director is, directly or indirectly, interested if all the other Directors are also directly or indirectly interested in the contract, arrangement or transaction;
- (d) determining the remuneration of the Directors;
- (e) purchasing and maintaining insurance to cover Directors against liability incurred by them as Directors; or
- (f) the indemnification of any Director by the Company.

These exceptions may from time to time be suspended or amended to any extent approved by the Company in general meeting and permitted by the Business Corporations Act, either generally or in respect of any particular contract or transaction or for any particular period.

15.3 A Director may hold any office or place of profit with the Company (other than the office of Auditor of the Company) in conjunction with his or her office of Director for such period and on such terms as to remuneration or otherwise as the Directors may determine, and no Director or intended Director shall be disqualified by his or her office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his or her tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, no contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which a Director is in any way interested shall be liable to be voided by reason thereof.

15.4 Subject to compliance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, a Director or his or her firm may act in a professional capacity for the Company (except as Auditor of the Company) and he or she or his or her firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he or she were not a Director.

15.5 A Director may be or become a Director or other officer or employee of, or otherwise interested in, any corporation or firm in which the Company may be interested as a shareholder or otherwise and, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, such Director shall not be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him or her as Director, officer or employee of, or from his or her interest in, such other corporation or firm, unless the Company in general meeting otherwise directs.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

16.1 The Chairman of the Board, if any, or in his or her absence, the President shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Directors, or if there is no Chairman of the Board or neither the Chairman of the Board nor the President is present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting or is willing to act as chairman, or if the Chairman of the Board, if any, and the President have advised the Secretary that they will not be present at the meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

16.2 The Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote. Meetings of the Board held at regular intervals may be held at such place, at such time and upon such notice (if any) as the Board may by resolution from time to time determine.

16.3 A Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or of any committee of the Directors by means of conference telephones or other communications facilities by means of which all Directors participating in the meeting can hear each other and provided that all such Directors agree to such participation. A Director participating in a meeting in accordance with this Article shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and to have so agreed and shall be counted in the quorum therefor and be entitled to speak and vote thereat.

16.4 A Director may, and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary upon request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Board at any time. Reasonable notice of such meeting specifying the place, day and hour of such meeting shall be given by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each of the Directors and alternate Directors at his or her address as it appears on the books of the Company or by leaving it at his or her usual business or residential address or by telephone, telegram, telex, facsimile or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director or alternate Director:

- (a) who is at the time not in the Province of British Columbia, or

- (b) if such meeting is to be held immediately following a general meeting at which such Director shall have been elected or is the meeting of Directors at which such Director is appointed.

16.5 Any Director of the Company may file with the Secretary a document executed by him or her waiving notice of any past, present or future meeting or meetings of the Directors being, or required to have been, sent to him or her and may at any time withdraw such waiver with respect to meetings held thereafter. After filing such waiver with respect to future meetings and until such waiver is withdrawn, no notice need be given to such Director and, unless the Director otherwise requires in writing to the Secretary, to his or her alternate Director of any meeting of Directors and all meetings of the Directors so held shall be deemed not to be improperly called or constituted by reason of notice not having been given to such Director or alternate Director.

16.6 The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and if not so fixed shall be two Directors or, if the number of Directors is fixed at one, shall be one Director.

16.7 The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as the number is reduced below the number fixed pursuant to these Articles as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

16.8 Subject to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act, all acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the qualification, election or appointment of any such Directors or of the members of such committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly elected or appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

16.9 A resolution consented to in writing, whether by document, telegram, telex, facsimile or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages or other means, by all of the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly called and held. Such resolution may be in two or more counterparts which together shall be deemed to constitute one resolution in writing. Such resolution shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Directors and shall be effective on the date stated thereon or on the latest date stated on any counterpart.

EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

17.1 The Directors may by resolution appoint an Executive Committee to consist of such member or members of their body as they think fit, which Committee shall have, and may exercise during the intervals between the meetings of the Board, all the powers vested in the Board except the power to fill vacancies in the Board, the power to change the membership of, or fill vacancies in, said Committee or any other committee of the Board and such other powers, if any, as may be specified in the resolution. The said committee shall keep regular minutes of its transactions and shall cause them to be recorded in books kept for that purpose, and shall report the same to the Board of Directors at such times as the Board of Directors may from time to time require.
